E-Tickets

As part of our environmental commitment, we use electronic tickets at An Grianán Theatre. When you book you will be emailed a link to an e-ticket. This can be presented on your phone for scanning on arrival at the venue. Alternatively, you can choose to download and print your ticket at home. Just be sure to have the QR code clearly visible for scanning.

Concessions

We offer discounts on some shows - concessions are available for under 18s, over 65s, students, registered disabled and those in receipt of unemployment benefit. Proof of eligibility and ID required. Where a family of four ticket is available it covers 1 adult and 3 under 18s or 2 adults and 2 under 18s. A 10% discount for groups of 10+ is available for most shows. Some exceptions apply.

Refunds & exchanges

We do not refund tickets unless a show is cancelled by the venue. You can return tickets in exchange for a gift voucher, minus the €2 per ticket booking fee, if you give us notice, in person or by phone, at least 24 hours before the start of the show. We regret that it is not possible to deal with ticket returns by email or over social media.

Late Comers

Late Admission cannot be guaranteed and can only occur if there is a suitable break in the performance. Please aim to arrive 20 mins before the advertised time and please allow adequate time for traffic and parking.

Accessibility

We want everyone to be able to come and enjoy An Grianán. We provide dedicated wheelchair spaces, accessible toilets, a lift, an assistive listening system for hearing aids, early entry, and welcome guide/assistance dogs. We are always striving to improve our accessibility infrastructure.

IMPORTANT: if you require space for a wheelchair please book directly with the box office on 074 912 0777 as wheelchair bays are not available to book online.

To discuss a booking, or to make us aware of any other needs you may have please contact us on boxoffice@angrianan.com or by phone on 074 9120777.

Three Hail Marys: Crokey Players

Tickets: €28/€26

Theatre

Tommy Marron's hit comedy drama returns. For more than a decade, the 3 Marys have lived together in the same nursing home, becoming the best of friends. But all good things must come to an end, and now they are moving to separate nursing homes. Join them for their final hours together as they argue, dance, sing and reminisce about their lives. Full of hilarious one-liners, this show has gone down a storm with audiences all over the country.

Sat 13 September at 8pm

Conor Moore: Me, Myself and Them!

Tickets: €37

Comedy

Get ready for a night of non-stop laughs as Conor Moore brings his legendary impressions to life in his brand-new comedy special. Known for his razor-sharp takes on GAA legends and his pitch-perfect impressions of politicians, Conor delivers a new show packed with personality — many personalities in fact! Mary Lou, Micheal, Loughnane, Brolly, Tommy Tiernan and many, many more feature throughout!

Suitable ages 16+.

Between Dog and Wolf: An evening of story-telling with Tommy Tiernan & Martin Shaw

Tickets: €39

Spoken word

Join two masters of their craft on an adventure into a world of fairytales and storytelling. Not stand-up, not literary recital, this is a kind of dreaming with your eyes open. It's a world where you get lost on the way home from the fair, or a cow becomes a hill, or a woman has a fox tail hidden under her skirt. All of this is happening all the time, and Tiernan and Shaw are bringing the tales to prove it.

NB: recommended ages 16+.

Sat 20 September at 8pm

Rock Rising: The Supreme Classic Rock Show

Tickets: €30.50

Music

Rock Rising is a high-octane classic rock show designed to take the audience on an edge-of-their-seats journey through the evolution of classic rock. Showcasing an excellent 7-piece band, taking incredible musicianship and stagecraft to a different level, this show features rock anthems from legendary acts such as Fleetwood Mac, The Eagles, Pink Floyd, AC/DC, Journey, Toto, Thin Lizzy and many more multi-platinum selling artists from the last four decades.

Thu 25 & Fri 26 September at 8pm

Hometown Girls: Glenties Musical Theatre

Tickets: €17/€12

Musical

A joyous musical set around Donegal's All Ireland triumphs in 1992 and 2012. Featuring original folk and country songs by Billy McInnes, Hometown Girls tells the story of three childhood friends, their lives, loves and heartbreaks and the town they grew up in. Full of laughter (and maybe a few tears), come along to relive the elation felt by the county with those epic wins.

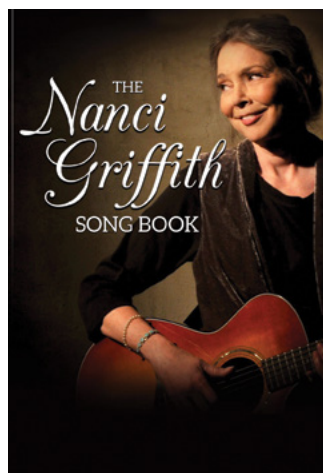

Sat 27 September at 8pm

The Nanci Griffith Songbook: Gillian Tuite and the Blue Moon Band

Tickets: €27

Music

An evening of songs and stories dedicated to the late Nanci Griffith, one of America's greatest musical treasures. A Grammy award winner whose career spanned nearly four decades, Nanci's blend of country, folk and pop music made her one of the most respected, popular and loved singer-songwriters of her generation. Join Gillian Tuite and the Blue Moon Band for this unforgettable tribute as they celebrate her greatest hits and musical legacy.

Coming this October - see website for more

Dylan Moran: Dolla Ho

Tickets: €35

Comedy

Throughout the summer of 2024, Dylan Moran traversed the highways and byways of Ireland for a 'Work In Progress Wander' which saw him craft hours of new material throughout 50 shows in 35 towns, including one right here at An Griánán. Now audiences can enjoy the fruits of those flights of fancy with his brand new stand-up show DOLLA HO. Enjoy Dylan's thoughts on anything and everything - all delivered in his trademark acerbic, eternally world-weary style.

Boyfriends

LemonSoap Productions

Fri 10 & Sat 11 October at 8pm, Sat matinee at 2.30pm

Tickets: €18/€15

Theatre

The hit drama from Killybegs native Ultan Pringle returns after its sellout shows here in July 2024.

Boyfriends charts the ups and downs and roundabouts of a modern situationship between two anonymous men. As they swing through four million one hundred and ninety one thousand possibilities of what they might mean to one another, through time, sex, Madonna songs, nightclubs, period dramas and calorie counting, Boyfriends asks us to ponder on that age old question: what the f*ck is romance anyway?

“Smart, raw, and above all, hilarious...a thoroughly entertaining and poignant experience.” — The Irish Times ★★★★★

“one of the best, if not the best, new plays of 2024.” — The Arts Review ★★★★★

Belfast Girls

An Táin Arts Centre and Quintessence Theatre

Tue 14 & Wed 15 October at 8pm

Tickets: €22/€20

Theatre

“We have this one an’ only chance. An’ in all the kingdom of Ireland aren’t we – us women – aren’t we damned lucky to be getting out of it?”

Confined in close quarters in the belly of the ship, they embark on a tumultuous sea journey as they sail away from their homeland. Secrets are revealed, enemies made, and it becomes clear that no matter where they go, there is no escaping the past.

Set in 1850, Jaki McCarrick’s Belfast Girls tells the story of five fierce young women who face their dark pasts on a ship bound for Australia, as they leave Belfast in search of a better life.

Suitable ages 14+

Sat 18 October at 8pm

Dancehall: Luail, Ireland's National Dance Company

Tickets: €20/€15

Theatre

We are delighted to welcome Luail, Ireland's new national dance company, to Letterkenny for the first time.

Drawn from the shadows of Ireland's Public Dance Halls Act, this exhilarating work revels in the powerful simplicity and raw humanity of the dancehall, a space where freedom, resistance and individuality unapologetically meet in messy, sweaty, chaotic joy.

Dancehall is an unrestrained tribute to what it means to be alive — together, egos smashed up, in the moment.

With music by Andrew Hamilton, performed by Crash Ensemble.

Wed 22 & Thu 23 October at 8pm
